FHWA’s 2014 Excellence in Utility Awards

PRESENTED AT:

AASHTO SUBCOMMITTEE ON RIGHT-OF-WAY, UTILITIES, AND OUTDOOR ADVERTISING CONTROL CONFERENCE

APRIL 30, 2014
SALT LAKE CITY, UT

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration
Construction Management Award

Presented to the

Montana Department of Transportation and

Morrison Maierle

In recognition of excellence in utility construction management for the Custer Avenue Interchange project.
Construction Management Award:
Montana Department of Transportation

Construction on I-358

Construction on 3635
Incentives Award

Presented to the

Massachusetts Department of Transportation

In recognition of excellence in establishing an incentive based reimbursement policy for utility relocations.

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration
Incentives Award:
Massachusetts Department of Transportation

Project completed before adoption of new policy

Project completed after adoption of new policy
Innovation Award

Presented to the

Utah Department of Transportation, CenturyLink and Terra Technologies

In recognition of excellence in utility innovation for the US-89 State Street reconstruction project.
Innovation Award:
Utah Department of Transportation

Protecting in-place CenturyLink’s facilities using Terra Cap™

CenturyLink facilities being prepared for relocation using Terra Move™
Honorable Mention Innovation Award

Presented to the

Kentucky Transportation Cabinet

In recognition of excellence in utility innovation for the Kentucky Utilities and Rails Tracking System.
Honorable Mention Innovation Award
Kentucky Transportation Cabinet

Kentucky Utilities and Rail Tracking System (KURTS) home screen
Project Development Award

Presented to the

Texas Department of Transportation,
NorthGate Constructors,
CSJ Engineering Associates,
and
Atkins

In recognition of excellence in utility project development for the Dallas Fort Worth Connector reconstruction project.
Utility owner crews relocating overhead electric distribution lines at night under lane closure

Aerial photo looking east over the SH 114 and SH 26 intersection. There were 12 utility adjustments at this one intersection.
Program Leadership: Individual Award

Presented to

Dave Hausmann
Utility Coordinator
South Dakota Department of Transportation

In recognition of excellence in utility coordination leadership throughout the development, implementation, and evolution of a successful utility coordination program for the South Dakota Department of Transportation.
Program Leadership: Individual Award
Dave Hausmann, South Dakota DOT

Dave Hausmann, Utility Coordinator, South Dakota DOT
Program Leadership: Team Award

Presented to the

Utah Department of Transportation
and
Cardno TBE

In recognition of excellence in utility program team leadership for the overhaul of UDOT’s Utility Accommodation Policy and Administrative Code and development of a Utility Coordination Manual of Instruction.

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration
Program Leadership: Team Award
UDOT Utility Coordination and Accommodation Improvement Team

The Utah DOT Utility Coordination & Accommodation Improvement Team

Training materials for the Utah DOT’s newly revised utility coordination process and training participants
Honorable Mention
Program Leadership: Team Award

Presented to the
Indiana Department of Transportation

In recognition of excellence in utility program leadership for the development of a Utility Coordination training program.

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration
Cindy Kowalski, Parsons Transportation, describing requirements to be an effective “On Point”-Utility Coordinator

One of three 2-day training sessions
FHWA’s 2014 Excellence in Utility Awards

Thank you and Congratulations!

For more information on the Excellence in Utilities Awards please visit FHWA’s Utility Program website at: http://www.fhwa.dot.gov/utilities/awards.cfm

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration